Liberty International Underwriters Launches Trio of New Cyber Liability Products

New Professional Liability Insurance Offerings Cover Technology, Privacy and Data Security

BOSTON – Agents and brokers can now offer their clients three new primary professional liability products from Liberty International Underwriters (LIU), the global specialty lines division of Liberty Mutual Insurance, which provides both primary and excess professional liability coverage for risks surrounding technology errors and omissions (E&O) and data privacy breach.

The LIU Data Insure™ suite of primary products gives brokers and agents the flexibility to tailor a cyber liability policy that best fits their clients' risks:

- LIU Tech Insure™: One of the broadest coverage offerings for technology service companies on the market, this policy covers breach of contract, intellectual property infringement, project failure coverage, data breach liability and E&O for all offered services.
- LIU Data Insure™: Standalone coverage for data breach liability and related costs cover for companies that handle personal data.
- LIU DataPro Insure™: Professional liability coverage as well as data breach liability and related costs cover for a wide range of professions and companies.

With any of these LIU cyber liability policies, each policyholder will be able to work with a consultant to access pre- and post-loss support services including pre-loss risk management, post-loss computer forensics, credit monitoring and restoration, data breach notification services and legal advice.

LIU has brought on Oliver Brew as Vice President of Miscellaneous Professional Liability and Technology E&O to head up this product line. Mr. Brew offers agents and brokers more than a decade of experience in global technology, network privacy and data security E&O.

“Computer hacking has always been a risk for any company with a web site and a network, but recently the frequency and severity of attacks has significantly increased,” said Mr. Brew. “Data security is now more than just an IT issue – it is a board-level issue. With attacks becoming more sophisticated and striking a wider range of institutions as well as increased regulatory pressure, more and more companies are looking for data security insurance to help protect their operations. Working with LIU, agents and brokers will bring to their clients the insurance and risk management solution best suited to mitigating their clients' technology and data privacy risks.”
